

different ages were with their prizes made me realize how much we seem to take for granted and also just how fortunate we all are in the lives that we lead. Overall, our Jteens trip to Cuba was an amazing experience. I learned a great deal about the lives of the Jewish people who continue to live there, I experienced a fascinating new country and I made some really wonderful and very special new friends. The Purim carnival was one of the many things that made our trip so special.
