

CONGREGATION
KOL AMI

The Movement Continues... An Interfaith Civil Rights Journey

J-Teen Leadership, with Congregation Kol Ami and Calvary Baptist Church of White Plains

Sunday, February 19, 2017 - Wednesday, February 22, 2017
For 8th and 9th Graders and a Parent

Teens and parents will join together for an educational journey to some of the most important sites of the Civil Rights Movement, starting in Atlanta, and traveling to Selma, Montgomery and Birmingham

Goals of the trip include:

- Learn about the history of the Civil Rights Movement.
- Hear the stories of heroes of the movement.
- Connect the lessons of this great social movement that resonate to the present day.
- Engage with the legacy of social action in the civil rights movement and the ongoing struggles today.
- Participate in meaningful service with local interfaith community in Birmingham.
- Experience Jewish community outside of New York.
- Have fun experiencing another part of the country.

Cost: $990/person. Deposit: $180/person (scholarship available)
Includes airfare, hotel, and most meals

For more information please contact: Guy Felixbrodt: guy@jteenleadership.org or 914-328-8788.

For an application go to bit.ly/jteencivilrights

We are thankful for the generous funding received from:

The Nedivot Fund, UJA-Federation Westchester Women's Impact Philanthropy Group and The Lucius N. Littauer Foundation

